PROHIBITS FOREIGNERS FROM OWNING
RADIO TRANSMITTING EQUIPMENT

The following special rules have been established to deal with the disposition of radio-transmitting apparatus owned privately by foreigners in China:

1. All foreign individuals, bodies, or organizations in China are hereby prohibited from establishing, operating, or possessing private radio transmitting installations in China. Violators of this regulation shall be severely punished.
2. All foreigners, who now have radio-transmitting equipment, or apparatus usable for such purposes, must disassemble all such installations within 7 days from the issuing date of this notice, and surrender all such equipment to the Public Security Office.
